

THE DAY IN ARIZONA

Fair Chance For Republican Success.

The Ticket Making Gains in Every County.

Cheyney's Prospects Good—Baldwin and Brady Beaten—Maricopa Redeems Himself.

The Territorial vote for Delegate to Congress seems very close and it is not likely that the final result will be known for several days yet, when a number of remote districts are heard from. The only majorities against Cheyney so far are in Democratic precincts and it is extremely probable that he will be elected by a fair majority. Harris Baldwin and Peter R. Brady are undoubtedly defeated for Joint Councilmen. General results are favorable to the Republican cause.

HEAVY GAINS MADE BY THE REPUBLICANS.

Montgomery, Priest and Kirkland Elected—Good Prospect for the Success of Other Nominees.

When the polls opened at 8 o'clock yesterday morning it was evident that the officers of election would have no time for play, for work began in dead earnest.

The friends and supporters of the different candidates as well as the candidates themselves, were out early and until sunset worked vigorously. The day was notable however, for its lack of offensive demonstrations and while most of the Democratic candidates asserted to the last their confidence of overwhelming majorities, it was evident that they were a little squeamish.

A number of challenges were made but only a few votes rejected.

Six tickets were in the field, there being, besides the regular Republican and Democratic tickets, four others variously combined. Thomas Sherman and John Slankard, independent candidates for Justice of the Peace and Constable, respectively, were on these.

A number of votes were refused from men not registered.

The polls at Sherman's office were presided over by Inspector B. A. Fickas; Judges Lincoln Fowler and F. B. Devereaux; Clerks Bruce Perley and H. B. Leonard Jr.

At the Gregory House were Inspector J. Harbert; Judges, C. H. Knapp and H. C. King; Clerks, John C. Sartelle and Z. A. Barton.

Up to 12 o'clock 500 votes had been cast and at the close the Phoenix precincts had polled 1141 votes.

About 7:30 o'clock a great crowd gathered in front of the Monihon building, where hourly bulletins were given by magic lantern until 11 o'clock.

The following is a list of the returns from all precincts heard from up to the hour of going to press. The first named

EXCITABLE MEXICANS

SHOW THEIR DISAPPROBATION OF A POOR BULL FIGHT.

Tear to Pieces an Open Theatre in the City of Mexico—Police Powerless to Quell the Disturbance.

CITY OF MEXICO, November 4.—A feature of the Jockey club's autumn meeting yesterday, was a bull fight, which nearly had very serious results.

When the fighter, Zocato, was struggling with his third bull, he was gored by the infuriated animal and tossed in the air. He received three deep wounds, which will probably prove fatal. After this, five more bulls were brought out, but as they did not fight at all, the spectators grew furious.

Soon they started in to demolish the plaza. The bull fighters escaped from the arena and when the police attempted to stop the rioting, the mob turned and threw the officers into the arena. Their usefulness was therefore curtailed.

Women, children and timid men trying to escape from the tumult, crushed into the narrow passage way, choking them up, and for a time a panic prevailed.

After the chairs and railings had been torn loose and hurled into the ring the crowd started to tear the outside of the arena. The police seemed powerless to quell the disturbance.

Finally the mob began to yell for a return of their money and by a promise that it would be given back, the excitement was finally subdued after the plaza was almost entirely destroyed. The police today conducted the refunding of the money.

The plaza was partially destroyed last year in a row growing out of the same cause, a poor fight.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Radical politicians are growing fewer every campaign.

The practical deadlock of business will be raised to-day.

Yesterday was the quietest election day in the history of the county.

There were 566 votes polled in Phoenix precinct yesterday up to 12 o'clock.

The ladies of the M. E. Church, South, did a rushing business with their turkey dinner yesterday.

The only mad man in town yesterday was the one who tried to vote and found he wasn't registered.

There was a continual procession between the polls yesterday of anxious candidates and their friends.

H. H. McNeil, of THE REPUBLICAN, was presented yesterday with a fine baby girl, the third child of the family.

Two young fellows had a scrap in Joe Gunn's restaurant about 9 o'clock yesterday evening. A few bruises and a fine of $10 each was what they got.

About 5 o'clock yesterday evening two men, named Troit and Green, disputed over some political proposition and pitched into each other for blood, but were parted before any injury was done.

Col. Posten received from the acting secretary of the department of agriculture, yesterday, an acknowledgment of the receipt of four stalks of sugarcane sent by him some two weeks ago, the product of Major Vail's ranch, near Phoenix, with notification that they would be placed in the Exhibition Hall, properly labeled.

Frank A. Hartwell and Miss Dell Hill were married Monday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, one mile southwest of the city. Rev. Hill, the father of the bride, tied the knot that unites two of the most popular young people of Phoenix. Mr. Hartwell is the well-known photographer, whose genial smile has won him a host of friends and who, with his charming wife, embarks upon the sea of married life attended by the good wishes of all who know them.
